Ship Bill, Winner In House, Facing Battle in Senate

Opposed the Bill in the House, While Four Democrats Voted for It.

SUCCESS PREDICTED BY AUTHOR OF BILL

Despite Amendments, the Measure Will Pave Way for Putting U.S. in High Place on Seas, He Says,

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS. Washington, November 29.-The administration shipping bill, around which was waged the most bitter partisan fight of the present congress, was passed today by the house with 24 votes to spare. The final county was 208 to 184. Sixty-nine republicans opposed the bill, while four democrats supported it. There never was much doubt about the result, but the margin by which it went through was much lower than estimates

In the face of threats to delay, if not prevent its passage by the senate, measure will go Monday to the senate committee which plans to accept it as passed by the house and take the fight to the floor next week. The usual motion to recommit, for the purpose of striking out the pro-ns relating to tax exemptions and direct compensation, was made by Representative Harick, Texas, ranking democrat of the merchant mamittee, which framed it and defeated 215 to 172. Predicts Passage.

Chairman Greene, of the merchant marine committee and Representative Edmonds, Pennsylvania, ranking re publican, who shouldered the fight brough the house, declared tonight that despite amendments the measure would pave the way for putting the American flag at a high place on the seas. The general view was that and an attempt been made to pass t as framed it would have been swept

There was a shout of approval on the republican side when the final e was announced, but it was not half so hearty as that given Representative Mondell, Wyoming, the republican leader, who in a closing ad- filibuster in sight. ess, pleaded earnestly with his party to stand behind the president and counter tactics were employed by give the bill a sweeping majority, the republicans in an endeavor to Mr. Mondell had the last word and every one of the 204 republicans who voted for it got up and cheered. Texas, designed to give the measure what he declared was its proper name. Mr. Lanham wanted to change title of Merchant Marine Act to Ship Subsidy Act of 1922, asserting that he had pur forward the proposal in the "final hope that a spade may be called by its proper name."

As passed by the house, no line was left in the bill relative to the subject in augurated. The republicans yes-

When the question was reached yesterday in committee of the whole, the Bankhead out-and-out prohibition amendment was put aside and a substitute offered by Mr. Edmonds accepted. It stipulated that if a ship, on any particular voyage, permitted the transportation of liquor, it could not share in a subsidy for that Favor Dyer Bill.

Macon, Ga., November 29. Miss Fannie Belle Outler, of Weslevan college, of this city, chairman of the student Y. W. C. A. tonight telegraphed Senators Harrison. Mississippi, and Harris. Georgia, protesting against the stand they have taken on the Dyer anti-lynching bill, now before the senate.

The telegram follows: "As chairman of 15,000 mem bers of the student Y. W. C. A, in ten southern states, I wish to voice our movement's opinion as one of emphatic protest against your attitude on the Dyer antilynching bill."

Both senators have opposed the bill, the provisions of which would subject counties wherein lynchings take place to severe penalties.

SHIPPING BILL GOES TO SENATE

A voice from the shores of the martime state of Massachusetts was lifted today against the bill, Representative Andrew, republican, declarations of the martine state of the same state of the s ing it offered a dangerous precedent, which if adopted "will hound us for years to come."

Now and then there was a brief flurry of political talk, but the leaders, pounding their forces in line, presented and put through, motion after motion. Then after passing the bill the house quit for Thanksgiving.

The house quit for Thanksgiving.

The house made a number of changes in the bill as reported by the Merchant Marine committee. One of them gave congress the right to per cent interest on deferred payments, instead of 4 per cent, as originally stipulated under an amendment adopted, and money loaned to prospective constructors would bring the government not less than 4 1-4 per cent interest, instead of 2 per cent. As passed the bill would provide for the sale of the government so the students lost their lives and a sorre or more suffered severe burns.

"All Georgia is startled and distressed at the news of the horrible death of the little children who were trapped on the second floor of the county school at High Point," declared Dr. Parks. "It should not happen again. A proper fire escape should be installed and fire drills should be frequently practiced.

"My sympathy goes out to the bereaved parents, to the injured childern, and to the teacher heroine who risking her own life and suffering severe burns, yet struggled so bravely to rescue every child.

"At the next meeting of the state board of education in January, I shall recommend that regulations be maded directing fire drills in every school in Georgia and directing principals and teachers to have all children properly informed of a safe means of ecape in case of fire. In the meantime, I suggest that every school in Georgia practice on a fire drill in the school some time this week."

FIRE DAMAGES ROME classified in the American bureau of shipping. Ships receiving compensation would be required to carry crews of which at least one-half at first and after three years two-thirds, exclusive of licensed officers, are American citizens. An exception was made in the stewards department of passenger ships. As a measure to prevent excess profits the bill stipulates that profits over 10 per cent must be returned to the casury until the amount of compensation a ship has received is repaid. The bill provides that the shipping board, in developing its sales policy, shall endeavor to continue all existing steamship routes and regular services.

house, but in the senate it will be a different story.

There a more strongly organized opposition is expected to indulge in fill-buster tactics in order to force an extra session of congress after next March. The president has indicated a desire to have the capital vacant during the summer, believing the country needs a long congressional rest. He will, therefore, oppose any attempt to embarrass the plans through dilatory tactics, and for the same reason is expected to welld the bludgeon right way.

counterpart. being more inclined to lead through persuasion, they point out. The key to all of his public utterances, both congressional and otherwise, thus far has been the soft word rather than the forceful declaration. And whatever fire there may be hidden and restrained, this is the impression congress holds of the president.

Victory or Utter Defeat.

If the president is successful in his efforts to drive the legislative branca of the government he will dominate the republican presidential convention in 1924, and naturally be the party nominee for the year. But, observers add, should congress ignore him, he will be a broken man, who in all like-lihood will be glad to retire from public life.

Manifestations of this attitude have been observed of late, it is stated.

Mr. Harding is said to have grown somewhat cynical over his office. When he moved to the white house he is reported to have entertained the idea that his administration would be compared to those of pre-civil-war days, with the slavery question left out. The late world's war had just terminated and the country was crying for normalcy and a return to ordinary conditions. There was nothing to do but wait the return.

The president, however, is said to have changed his mind about the office.

These senators after today's session

These senators after today's session frankly declared that "more and more the wonder grew," and Senator Curtis, of Kansas, the republican whip, asserted on the floor that congress had seen no filibuster so complete since the famous Force bill was talked to death in 1891. Senator Willis, of Ohio, one of the strongest withing adventes of the April republican advocates of the anti-lynching bill, went even further in speech late in the day and said "The parliamentary history of this country discloses nothing to approach the situation which now exists in the

The second outstanding decision to day was that the status of certain other Greek islands should be studied as part of the general problem of the straits, and that the Russian delegates should be invited to participate.

Although present at the sub-commission meeting this morning, former Premier Venizelos, of Greece, did not attend the full commission session later, and there was apparently not official reference to the executions in Athens or the withdrawal of the British minister from Greece.

The Greek islands which the commission decided should be partly detailitatized include Samos, Mirtigue. Chios and Nikaria. Lemnos originally was in this group, as defined by the Turks, but the commission put in the group of islands nearer the straits, the status of which will be fixed later.

This second group of islands now includes Embros, Tenedos, Samothrace and Lemnos, which are not far from the entrance of the Dardanelles. Remarkable Powers of "Canton Miracle Man" Attract Attention of Georgia Scientists

"the Canton Miracle Man," who gives daily demonstrations of the posses-sion of remarkable psychic powers, has attracted the attention of some of the most eminent psychologists and scientists in the state, it was learned here Wednesday. Plans are now be-ing worked out to have Vaughn undergo a series of tests by leading psy-chologists if Vaughn and his family are willing to submit to the experi-

Vaughn is almost totally paralyzed and has been in this condition for ten weeks. He cannot speak, taste, smell, see or hear. Only his sense of fouch remains, and this seems to have been increased to a hundredfold of ince his affliction. The man is able to identify hundreds of friends by merely touching their hands, and has astounded the people of this section by relating details of accidents and deaths which are said to have occurred miles away.

Among the men of science who are expected to visit Canton soon to see Vaughn is Professor Goodrich Cook White, professor of psychology at Emory university. Professor White said his attention had been directed to the case and that be hoped to visit Canton in a short time and examine Vaughn. Until he investigated, however, he refused to comment on the claims of remarkable psychic power on the part of Vaughn.

A TRUE HEROINE.

Occasions like that of the burning of the High Point school afford impressive proof of the fact that demonstrations of true heroism are by no means limited to exploits on a battlefield.

Such conduct as that of Mrs. Sadie Grant, the school teacher, who, at the peril of her own life, saved the lives of more than a score of her little pupils while the floor of the school room in which they were entrapped was burning from under their feet, shows that the spirit of true heroism is present in peaceful pursuits as well as in war.

Mrs. Grant was in charge of the econd floor of the two-story pine school building at High Point, a little rural community near Covington, Ga., with more than forty children, few of them above 10 years of age, in her care.

Her first intimation that the uilding was on fire came when one of her little charges called her attention to the "pretty white dust" For Faith that points to realms above that was filtering through cracks surrounding the door - "dust"

This Thanksgiving Day! BY JAMES A. HOLLOMON

Just a thought-The strictly American custom of the Far East-the Orientals of a setting aside one day in each year, different faith-but Occidentals who instituted by the government as a legal holiday, and proclaimed by the president, and by the various state executives, as a specific occasion for giving thanks for the blessings that accrue to the nation and to the people, is a great deal more significant than an empty sentiment—as many great thinkers have tried to impress. First of all-

It recognizes God as the source of all good and perfect gifts, whether they be health and happiness, or material blessings, or the peace and prosperity of a nation, or part or all that may have fallen into the path of the individual.

In this respect, if in no other, it is a nation-wide service of Christian evangelism that is equaled by no other service, performed in the course of affairs, by either the government or the nationals.

And again-It calls a halt in the busy marts of trade and in the everlasting battle for commercial and social and professional and political position and mastery, not for a brief pause that is perfunctory, but for one entire day of serious reflection upon the omnipotence of a High Power; and upon that divine code that must govern Europe have already taken the initiaman's dealings with man, the Golden Rule.

And then-It establishes by law the efficacy of prayer; and the duty of the individual to be appreciative, not only to been the most powerful force since the the Fountain Head, but to those earthly agencies that are guided by human hands-for of all the virtues gratitude is one of the most outstand-

Rawlings, general missionary secretary, who is to preach at Druid Hills Methodist church Sunday morning and at the First Methodist church Sunday night, has just returned from a tour of mission fields in Europe and gives a most glowing report of Methodist mission work in Bohemia. He says that in the city of Prague already one congregation of 2.400 has been established, while smaller churches have been organized in other cities. Referring to evangelistic meetings held there by Rev. Walt Holcomb, he said that congregations grew until many were turned away at the doors, and at one service more than 100 came forward for membership in the church.

Dear Santa Claus: Knowing the difficulties you have had in pleasing certain persons at Christmas time, we make the following timely suggestion:

Look over your gift list and see who writes. Send to these worthy gentlemen and gentlewomen, an EVERSHARP or a WAHL PEN-or both in the same design, if your heart is full. We guarantee exquisite satisfaction, for, between us and the North Pole, there are no finer writing instruments than EVERSHARP and WAHL PEN. EVERSHARP has the exclusive rifled tip that grips the lead. WAHL PEN has the sensationally-new all-metal barrel that cannot crack or split.

Look again over your gift list—and give a WAHL PEN to every one to whom you gave an EVERSHARP last year. Both are made in gold or silver, in the same beautiful designs, and match perfectly. You can choose from 90 styles of WAHL PENS. Any dealer can supply velvetlined CIET ROXES in which EVERSHARP and lined GIFT BOXES in which EVERSHARP and WAHL PEN can be presented singly, or together, as writing sets.

Macon County Man Says Success of Election Protest Would Cause Confusion in All Races.

Efforts on the part of Peach coun ty advocates to throw out returns from a number of counties which failed to comply with certain election regulations are regarded as "an outrage by the voters of Macon county who were 100 per cent against the amendment," it was declared Wednesday by John B. Guerry, of Montezuma, prominent attorney and one of the leading opponents of the meas-

Mr. Guerry declared that while certain irregularities were found in the returns from 63 counties-the consolidated vote from these counties being of sufficient number to swing the pendulum of defeat to victory in the event these ballots are excluded— —they were purely of a formal na-ture and no evidence of fraud ex-isted.

Affect All Officers.

Affect All Officers.

Should the contest of the election in these counties be sustained and the Peach county amendment declared victorious, Mr. Guerry contended that all representatives and officers elected would be disqualified to hold office and their right to such office could be questioned by any taxpayer in the state.

Action on the protest, which was made by Senator Joe Davidson, of Fort Valley, was deferred by Governor Hardwick Wednesday, until next Monday, following action of Attorney-General George N. Napier, who rendered an opinion to the governor in which he held that the secretary of state shall canvass the returns and certify the same to the governor.

It is expected that a representative delegation of citizens from Fort Valley, who managed the Peach coun-ty campaign, will be present when the matter comes up in the govern-or's office next Monday.

Thinks Vote Legal.

In his statement, Mr. Guerry cites In his statement, Mr. Guerry cites the code of Georgia governing elections, which provides that no election shall be defeated for non-compliance with requirements of the law if held at the proper time and place by persons qualified to hold them, and further, if it is not shown by that non-compliance, the result is different from what it would have been had there been proper compliance.

His statement follows:

With reference to the protest filed by advocates of Peach county, which alleges that returns in certain counties were illegally consolidated, I wish to state that all of the alleged irregularities were purely formal in their character and there are no allegations of fraud or that the elections in such counties were not fair and free.

In the counties of Bartow, Butts, Carroll.

as in such counties were not fair and in the counties of Bartow, Butts, Carroll, b. Columbia, Cowets, Dawson, Decatur, nklin, Forsyth, Gwinnett, Hall, Haral-Henry, Jackson, Jones, Meriwether, ttgomery, Newton, Paniding, Pike, Spald-Sumter, Taibot, Telfair, Troup, Web-Wilkes, it is sileged that "there is no solidated certificate from any of these counties subscribed to by a majority superintendents of the election at the inty site and by at least one superindent from each of the other precincts said counties."

In the counties of Barrien, Catooss, ugherty, Macon, Morgan, Pickens, even. Turner, Walker, Walton and White, is alleged that "ine copies of voters" lists, y sheers or superintendents' oaths were inded in the returns to the secretary state."

which this protest might be heard and determined.

Disfranchise People.

The people of Macon county are 100 percent against this measure, as is shown by their vote, which was 1,117 to 5, and they feel that it would be an outrage to say that because a tally sheet might have been left out of the returns sent to the secretary of state the vote of their county should be thrown out and the election of their representative to the legislature rendered null and void.

This same condition would apply with equal force to all of the countles above enumerated, and would mean that for a mistake or an inadvertence or even an intentional omission on the part of superintendents of the election a whole county would be disfranchised. Such is not the intention of the law nor of the people of Georgia.

Express Clerk Hurt in Falling Through Elevator

A. H. Jolly, 28, employee of the American Railway Express company, is in the Grady hospital suffering from serious injuries received in a fall down the elevator shaft of the building at 106 Walton street Wednesday afternoon.

Jolly lives at 116 North Moreland avenue. He stated he went in the building to get some express packages, as he had been doing for some time in the past. Thinking the elevator was down, as usual, and with no gate to protect the shaft, he stepped into space, falling to the basement from the first floor.

Surgeons expressed the belief that he had two or there ribs fractured, in addition to a broken left arm.

Follow These Simple Rules

1. Anyone may compete, except our employees or their relatives. Prize winners in other similar word contests are also ineligible.

2. Use only one side of the paper in writing your answers. You must number each page and each word submitted consecutively—1, 2, 3, etc. Write your full name and address in the upper right hand corner of each page, All answers must be mailed by December 2, 1922, to The Atlanta Constitution. A 5 per cent additional prize will be awarded for promptness as specified in the prize list.

3. The answer having the largest number of words which correctly name objects shown in the picture wins First Prize, etc.

4. In the event of ties, the full amount of the prize will be awarded each tying contestant.

5. The winning list will be made up from applicable words in all answers submitted and not from any predetermined or master list. One credit will be allowed for each incorrect word or omission.

6. Three independent judges will judge the answers and award the prizes. Webster's New International Dictionary will be used by the judges as authority for all words. It is understood and agreed that participants entering this game will accept the judges' decision as final and conclusive.

7. Do not use obsolete, compound or hyphenated words, or any word made up of two or more complete English words.

8. Words of the same spelling can be used only once. Where the singular is used the plural must not be used, and vice versa. Each object may be named only once: however, you may name any visible part of an object.

9. Only one answer will be accepted from a family or from a group of persons who have worked on the picture together.

10. Every answer will receive the same consideration, regardless whether or not a subscription has been sent in. Neatness, style or handwriting will have no bearing on judging th. winners.

11. Announcement of the prize winners and the winning list of words. together with the correct list determined by the judges, will be announced in the columns of The Constitution just as s

Heading the vaudeville program is General Pisano and Company, presenting "At the Italian Front," a sensational exhibition of sharp-shooting. Two people are in the company, one man and one woman. The act is most spectacular in action and is considered one of the best novelties of its kind in vaudeville. General Pisano, known the world over, is a famous all-round sharp-shooter with a wonderfully acute eye and steady hand, also a showman who delights in furnishing the public something worth while. The lighting of matches with a buffet shot from the balcony and snuffing them, playing a popular air on a specially constructed marimbaphone, are son sof the remarkable feats performed, which require absolute accuracy, nerve and skill. "The Cause of Unrest and Crime and the Remedy for the Decline of Womanhood" will be the subject of a lecture by Miss Eunice Bradford Kingsbery, an artist, formerly of Wshington, D. C. AT WAR ON WEEVIL

Barnesville, Ga... November 29.—
(Special.)—Notwithstanding the Lamar cotton crop for 1922 is cut just half of what it was in 1921 the farmers have determined to make cotton for 1923 and are now active in their fight on the boll weevil. They realize that if the instructions of the government are followed that cotton can be made and scores of them are making their arrangements now to plant a reasonable acreage in cotton for 1923 to be cultivated along the lines with the diversification plan of farming which has been inaugurated during the past year.

Curneyed from her backyard on Turkey day.

Fisk has had a good season so far, defeating such elevens as Tuskegee, Knoxville and Talladega, and while she is not battling for southern championship honors, yet she stands as a great stumbling block to the Tigers' championship repirations. The Bull-dogs have a great team and number among them several nationally known stars as Captain "Tubby" Johnson, all-American half, and Long, all-southern tackle for two years. Both stars are playing their last year for Fisk and are determined to give all they have to insure victory.

Morehouse defeated Fisk 6-0 in a sea of mud during the last three minutes of play last year and the university team is determined to avenge that defeat.

The feature of the first quarter's playing was a 90-vard run to a touchdown by Brantley Boswell. He caught a punt on his own 10-yard line and ran 90 yards. Another feature of the quarter was a touchdown scored by Kandell from the 15-yard line on the great lock-step formation that Centre started early in the season. The score at the end of the first quarter was 27 to 0.

Three more touchdowns were added in the second quarter on straight football, but in the third quarter University started a drive that netted 17 points. In this quarter Broadnax got away with a 60-yard run to a touch down after catching a punt.

In the final quarter University used many scrubs but they could do very little with the cadets. In the final quarter Tom Angley again displayed some neat football when he caught a punt and ran 70 yards to a touchdown. He had very little aid when going through the G. M. A. The Birmingham Athletic club has not furnished a list of entries to management of the races yet. It is though that the club will be one of the strongest contenders for the trophy since Bill Streit was so strong for Richter while on a visit to Atlanta a short time ago. It is understood that the B. A. C. will have a team in the races, and in that event Richter will be in the sprints at the finishing lines.

Georgia has a strong team captained by Howard, who pushed Stokes in the Georgia state meet last spring and who is one of the steadiest striders in the south in distance work. He will be supported by Lunde, Methwin and Langford.

Tech will be defended by Captain Daves, runner-up in the finals of the Georgia state meet. Daves is one of the best men in the running game and has a strong sprint after several miles of hard striding. Daves will be supported by a team of ten men George Irons, one of the Alabama stars of southern fame, will lead the Alabama team, and he is known to be a leader by the way he ran the Birmingham last spring. In this race Irons led Stokes and other winners of southern distance runs in by long and easy strides. Irons is expected to be in the counting at the finish. Even though Auburn is playing a hard game of foothall, she has enough good men left to put out a distance team which will make any team run its best to be at the finishing Auburn is going on Grant field with the determination to win both the football game and the southenstern road race championship. Meanwhile on the mountain the Tiger is chortling with glee. For the McGuginites have gone ten days with but a single session of practice. They spent last Thursday in polish ing off signals. Since that time they have engaged in no strenuous exercises. Yesterday in the mire and marrow chilling drizzle the Vandy folks struggled to regather the loose ends of their gridinon chores. Tech's backfield, with the exception of Pinky Hunt at fullback, will be playing their last game at Grant field. They are keyed up for the struggle, are on the edge that all football coaches strive to reach.

The Plainsmen have pledged themselves to stop Tech. This determination was not voiced in whispers. The warriors shouted so loudly that the cry was heard throughout the south.

"We're going to whip h— out of Tech Thursday for you, coach," the Plainsmen cried. And don't you think they won't remember that statement when they start this afternoon.

Coach Donahue has said that it is the last Auturn team he will send against the Yellov Jackets and the players who idolize the little Irishman are going to defeat Georgia Tech or die in the attempt.

If you are worried by tender, inflamed gums you should read the letter of Mr. Thompson, of 136 Madison Ave. Oakhurst (Kirkwood), Ga. Mr. Thompson writes us as follows:

"Several years ago I had six teeth temoved and the consequences were that I have suffered more or less from a tenderness of the gums. Upon recommendation of a friend, I used your HEROIC GUM REM-EDY and the tenderness has been eatirely removed, as the gums are now in a healthy condition. The winner will generally be accorded the southern championship, although Vanderbilt and North Carolina are both slated to go through like like their tests today without hurting the record they have maintained down a road that fairly bristled with obtained.

S. For a moist field shackles the fleetness of the diminutive Vandy backs. It depresses the passing game. Otnerwise it is very, very helpful to the Commodores, who depend largely upon the rabbit-like movements of the backs, the overhead attack and Scotty Neil's talented toe.

Which is why those Commodores are applying their leisure to praying for a dry field.

Little Practice.

This afternoon will mark one of the baths at the history of southern football. And in significant appreciation of the game, every reserved sent for the game has been sold. There is nothing left save standing room. These Commodores abbor and detest a wet playing field when the Sewanee Tiger comes down from the mountains. For even with solid footing the Tiger is a formidable enough foe. When the going is goey the Purple is much the same as a night in Dublin.

Both teams are in excellent physical shape. Tech, it might be said, is in the best shape possible. Not a man on the squad is suffering from a severe injury. Not a man who will not be able to play the full sixty minutes should it become necessary. Auburn, though they have one or two men on the bench from injuries, have just as good men in the game.

Nothing remains but to see who is going to fight the hardest and stick in there the longest. Coach Alex gave his men a light signal drill and then sent them to the showers. All the fellows gathered around and gave teleers for the coaches, for the student body, and then wended their way towards the dressing room, having in last Game.

Most all the men who start for Tech in the game will be playing their last time. Al Staton, Oscar Davis, Mitchell, Lyman, McDonough, Barron and Brewster must say farewell to the flats this afternoon, whether we win or lose. Many prep football fans are of the opinion that Marist has the best coached prep machine in the city; and from a close observation of the plays used by Marist and the way they are handled would indicate that the players have been thoroughly taught from the very beginning.

Marist has some fifty-six plays, and all of them are run from four or five different formations. The plays are the most varied of any ever attempted in prep circles, and that attack is just as varied as the plays. Today's Rule—Do not try to establish two suits in one hand against declarer's strong trumps.

Q. What is my lead after the declarer has bid two spades? These are the cards I hold: Seven, five of spades; Ace and three little hearts; King, Jack, two small diamonds; Queen and two small clubs.

A. Lead a spade. This will not hurt your partner's hand as the dealer ought to have a solid spade suit and this makes the declarer develop his own side suits and will probably save a trick for you. A strong defense is the best offense.

Q. I am the second hand, declarer develop also the second hand. I hold Ace.

Q. My partner deals and passes, also the second hand. I hold Ace, Jack, nine, seven, three of spades; cueen, five of hearts; King, three small diamonds; King and one low club. Should I bid a spade? No score on either side.

A. I would pass this hand and if fourth hand opened the bidding then I would mention spades. The hand is not strong enough to start a spade bid as your Kings have no protection. If you were something on the score it would make a different condition and then you could mention a spade for information.

BEAUTY CHATS By Edna K. Forbes

FOR INEXPERIENCED MOTHERS.

MOTHERS.

When I started a series of beauty chats for expectant mothers, I think I said that there was no reason why the young mother should not be as beautiful while the baby is coming as before it was, ever dreamed of. My first suggestion was that she wear smocks to conceal the gradual change in the figure; at another time I tried to console her for her loss of slimness by pointing out the improvement in the complexion that almost always comes at this period.

One young mother told me that she felt so badly during all these months that she didn't care what she looked like. Such a condition is unfortunate but really is the exception. The whole maternal process is perfectly normal and, with any sort of intelligent care, results in better health and better looks, as any doctor will tell you. I am inclined to think that a great deal of bad feelings at this time are due to the woman's own imagination. For some curious reason the imagination is over-active during these months; besides there is a natural anxiety for the well-being of the future child, and the mother feels that anything wrong with herself will react to its harm. This usually isn't true,

SOCIAL GAIETIES FEATURE THANKSGIVING SEAS

Weddings and Dances And Big Game on Program

With Thanksgiving here once more the social spirit is at its flood ide. Not only is this spirit expressed in all of the social galeties that will feature the day and in which all the young and happy will participate but every forlorn person in Atlanta whose needs are known will be made to share in it through the bounty and the goodness so characteristic of Atlanta charities.

Thanksgiving eve ushered in the festivities with the Nine O'Clock cotillion at the Piedmont Driving club when the fairest and the smartest of Atlanta's married set and the younger members of society danced through the night. Three important weddings—one of them a double wedding, always an interesting feature because of its novelty—the dinnerdance at the Capital City club and innumerable smaller affairs such as luncheons, teas, bridge parties and diners kept society on the go all wedding, teas, bridge parties and diners kept society on the go all the day.

The Nine O'clock was the first of the season and assembled 200 in the ball room of the Piedmont Driving club, when everybody wore their new dresses and the atmosphere was gay and festive in a superlative degree.

Double Wedding.

Yesterday morning the double weddings of Miss Carolyn Vickers and Benjamin Rose Rhett and Miss Kardryn Vickers and Edward Verger brought together a large group of the prespectative people in the rought a number of visitors from Missisippi, where the two young brides formerly resided in Jackson.

on meet Miss. Owens and her guest. Miss Massey.

Of course, the football game today will rivet first attention for it not only calls out all of the young people who flock in, hundreds to see Tech and Auburn contend for victory but it lures all of the older ones into leaving the family dinner and comfortable fireside for the exciting event. There seems to be a halo of romance about the game today for in addition to the usual interest in the "home" team "Red" Barron's wedding in the evening makes him the center of increased interest. The largest event of Thanksgiving day will be the tea-dance at the Pictmont Driving club to be given by Mr. and Mrs. Edward Imman for Miss Anne Grant and for which 350 reservations have been made and which follows the Tech football game.

Immediately affer the game the members of the Chi Phi fraternity will give a tea-dance in their fraternity house, the college set will also have plenty of gaiety to keep them busy until far into morning hours as the Tech Bulldogs have a superdance tonight, the Delta' Sigma Phi fraternity will dance in their chapter house and a dance at Garber hall will take place, and the Emory Sigma Phi fraternity dances in its chapter house.

There will be many congenial groups who will share in the happy spirit of the supper dance of the Capital City club supper-dance the grand-daughters of Mrs. Addison. They are the grand-daughters of Mrs. Addison. They are the grand-daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Collier. As belles in the college set they will grace many social affairs during their visit. A marriage of social interest and prominence characterized by great beauty was that of Miss Carolyn Vickers and Benjamin Rose Rhett, and Miss Kathryn Vickers and Edward Yerger, Jr., formerly of Jackson, Miss., which was solemnized Wednesday morning at 11:30 o'clock at the West End Presbyterian church.

The impressive ceremony was performed by Rev. Willis S. Wilson, pastor of the churcn, and witnessed by a large assemblage of friends and relatives.

A beautiful musical program was rendered by Mrs. Bonita Crowe, organist. Mrs. J. C. Brown, gifted Atlanta artist, sang "Because."

Beautiful Decorations.

The church was decorated in a beautiful and novel fashion. Palms and ferns banked the altar, and on each side hung as though suspended in mid-air a large wedding cake midel of white roses and valley lilies. The pedestals holding them in place were completely hidden by the lovely pulms that were massed about the sitar. Inside the rings large cathedral candelabra, holding the burning white tapers, were placed. On the altar a great vase of white chrysanthemuns and over the organ were wreaths of white smilax. White lilies marked the family pews.

The ushers, James Rousseau, Macon, Ga.; Frank Beall and Courtney Cauble, entered first.

Bridal Attendants.

Here are some simple ways to recognize artificial silk. That which is now commonly found on the market is a colodian-like substance, made from cotton or wood fiber, put through tubes, hardened in the air and so treated that it will withstand moisture. The artificial silk now used in knitted sweaters, scarfs, dress braids and fancy ribbons is combined with both pure silk and cotton. You can recognize it by its brilliancy and stiffness.

If you want to make an actual test try burning. Artificial silk burns with almost explosive rapidity. It also disintegrates if it comes in contact with water. But this deficiency is being gradually overcome by science, so that today one may purchase artificial silks which defy even such a test.

chase artificial silks which defy even such a test.

As a rule, artificial silk is much harder than real silk, and some of it is almost woody in structure. It is always very shiny—with that hard, non-disappearing luster that makes it immediately recognizable. Nevertheless, artificial silks have a great capacity to absorb dyes and today some of the most beautiful colors are produced in this fiber.

"Hey, there. Clark: unlock the door!" he cried impatiently.

He ran to the clothes-press and swung back the door. The operator lurched into his arms, gasping.

In despair Armitage returned to the station. The telegraph out of commission, the engine gone—they were trapped!

How Jeanne rose above pain and faintness during that twenty miles she never could explain. She just did it; that was all. The final wrench between sensibility and insensibility came when she was forced to stand up to close the throttle.

"John—you shot me!... How could you?" Immediately the low babble of incoherent phrases began again.

At the same time, under Armitage's order, a new federal operator took the telegraph key and hammered out a few friendly greetings to the man at headquarters to prove that he could send tolerably well.

The office was now descred except command was faved.

It was Parson Kennedy who brought information of the Confederate at trap. He had stumbled upon this information by the merest luck. He had left his comrade back there, dead. "Gardner."

The two, sent out to feel the way from headquarters, had run plump into a scouting party of the enemy.

The younger man twisted oddly in his saddle. A mile or so beyond, he called out in agony. Kennedy was beside him almost as soon as he fell.

"Gardner, boy?"

"Parson,—if you ever see her again—" Gardner was dead.

Armitage, with compressed lips and frowning eyes, listened to this vivid rectital. Six gone: Armstrong, Fogarty, Schmidt, Henderson, Skinner and Gardner—six brave and gallant officers. It was a combination that couldn't have been beaten. It never has been from Station WGM in the way of a program by soloists and an orchestra.

First Radio Appearance.

Miss Sheridan's appearance at Station WGM was her first before a microphone, but the way she sang and the way in which ber music was broadcast couldn't have been bettered.

Tonight listeners to Station WGM will hear Vincent Sullivan, tenor of "Tangerine" is one of the biggest lights on the musical comedy stage. Her voice, which is of real strength and beauty, proved a big hit with listeners. As the prima donna of "Tangerine" is sheridan has taken Atlanta by storm.

Miss Sheridan had two numbers. One was "Love's Garden of Roses," while the other was Cadman's "At Dawning." 4 O NE COVERS a good deal of territory when one speaks of a frequent radio singer as a "radio favorite." I wonder just how many "radio try of Greater Prague Tay of Greater Prague at isn't the reputation of an artist in his of her own city that makes a "radio favorite." To become a "radio favorite" is perhaps one of the most difficult positions to assume now, unless it is to become an operatic star or something of that kind.

domestic winter wheat acreage would prove the smallest since 1916, and prove the smallest since 1916, and that the quality percentage would remain low in the December government report.

Practically the topmost prices of the day were current in the wheat pit as the session came to an end, with shorts trying to cover and offerings light.

Corn and oats were firmer in sympathy with wheat. Corn demand reports the state of the corn demand reports the state of the corn demand reports. Mrs. Mathews has received a large number of cards and letters through Station WGM that have been forwarded to her, but the number that come addressed to just "Station WGM" clearly mark Mrs. Mathews as "radio favorite."

Captain F. C. Maxden, Box 100, Mismi, Fla., is just one of the thousands who appreciate Mrs. Mathews and istening to your concerts.

Unfavorable Crop Reports From South America Lead to Advance in Chicago, November 29.-Unfavorable crop reports from Argentine led to a new advance today in the price of wheat. Despite considerable sell-of wheat. Despite considerable selling to even accounts before the holiday tomorrow, the market closed firm, 3-8c to 1 3-8c net higher, with May 117 3-4 to 117 3-8 and July 108 1-2. Corn gained half cent to 7-8, oats finished unchanged to half cent up, and provisions varying from 30 cents off to a rise of 5c.

With Argentine dispatches telling of disappointing yields and impaired quality of wheat, the market here was further disturbed by reports that rain was continuing to interfere with the Argentine harvest, and that dam-rain was continuing to interfere with the Argentine harvest, and that damage had been done by hail and frost. Indications that domestic wheat was being bought for shipment to Europe by way of the Gulf of Mexico tended further to strengthen bullish sentiment. Predictions were current that domestic winter wheat accesses would

Dry Goods.

New York, November 29.—Cotton goods were steady today but sales were light. An allotment of dress ginghams by the largest producers at prices 10 per cent above the low point of the year resulted ju the ready acceptance of all offerings by the wholesale trades and did much to atrengthen the general markets. Yarns were steady and quiet. Wool goods were quiet ond firm. Sliks were quieter. Burlaps advanced under the impetus of higher prices and more active buying abroad. Linens ruled firm.

But On Eve of Holiday Market Is Quieter Than Previous Day

BY R. L. BARNUM

Constitution's Financial Correspondent.

New York, November 29.—Outside of a sharp break in Brie stocks and some softness in Corn Products, Studebaker, Baldwin and one or two others, the market continued strong today, but quiet compared with yesterday. This quietness on the eve of a holiday, which, in many cases, is likely to last throughout the week, was not surprising. But with the recoil yesterday of nearly 3 points in the average price of fifty shares compared with Monday's low, which was the closing for that day, the picture of the speculative and investment outlook has been changed.

With the government paying out $511,000,000 next month in cash to meet maturing bonds and notes and interest, from now on for a spell at least there is likely to be a better demand for good securities.

to marked sorterine out French governmental and municipal issues, particularly the French 7 1-2s, were inclined to ease in sympathy with the further weakness in exchange.

At their lows of the day, Eric consolidated 4s were down 2 points, the general 4s, 1-3-5: the convertible 4s, series A, 1-3-8 and the series D 4, but they all came back later.

Sains of 1 to 1-1-2 points were made by a number of railroad issues, including Scaboard Air Line refunding as and Consolidated 6s. Frisco adjustment 6s and Norfolk & Western Convertible 6s.

Sugar and copper company liens continued to be the favorites in the industrial group, some of the leaders being Punts Allegre Sugar 7s, Cuba Cane 8s, Cerro de Pasco 8s and Chile Copper 6s and 7s, the gains ranging from 1 to 1-3-8. Sharon Steel 8s, Donnar Steel 7s and Wilson Packing convertible 6s were heavy, losing 1 to 2 points.

Brazil 7 1-2s improved 2 1-2 points and Rio de Janeiro so of 1946 and 1947, a point or more, but French 7s, Jurgen 6s, Dutch East Indies 6s of 1962 and Mexican government 4s sold off 1 to 1-1 points.

United States government is sues advanced 6 to 10c on $100.

Total sales (par value) $10,308, 000.

There were a few new offerings today, the largest being a $2,800,000 is sues of 4 1-2 and 6 per cent and over.

Realizes Influence of Senate Farm Bloc - Attends Chicago Congress.

BY FERDINAND TUOHY. Chicago, November 29 .- (Special.) farmer's party ir the United States Georges Clemenceau, the senate, Georges Clemenceau, the French war premier, has decided to return to Chicago December 11, to speak before the farmer's congress. The decision to alter his schedule was reached while the French "Tiger" was en route to Washington.

He said he will speak as a farmer's congress, and afmounced that his subject would be "The Pence Loving French Peasant and the Solidarity of the Farmers Contribute to a Nation." Clemenceau will speak in Baltimore Monday on his way back to Washington.

still in a stable here last night. One man was instantly killed and the other two died in hospitals. Two of the injured are reported in a serious condition. The dead are John Kozals, Benjamin Waxman and an unidentified man believed by the police to have been B. Miller, who recently rented the place.

The blast rocked the neighborhood and broke window glass in many of the nearby houses.

A partially loaded motor track was standing in the building when fire and muffled explosions were coming from containers that held an aggregate of bout 500 gallons of moonshine. The truck was dragged to the street and the flames extinguished. Government agents investigating the explosion expect to make arrests today.

Chicago Minister Says They Take the "Thanks" Out of Thanksgiving.

RY PAUL SIFTON,
United News Staff Correspondent.
Chicago. November 29.—Those Thanksgiving blues which have marked every last Thursday in November since the Pilgrims first celebrated it with the Indians are to be banished forever if Chicago ministers can eftect it.
No more glum sermons of the "You're lucky to be alive," tone; no more sonorous warnings of evils present and to come; and, especially, no more such remarks as, "O Lord, we thank Thee that we are not as other nations."

For all this, frequently administered to helpless congregations under the label of Thanksgiving sermons, does not make people feel glad and happy and thankful on the one day set aside for people to feel that way, according to the Rev. Dr. Howard Agnew Johnston, president of the Chicago church federation.

On the eve of Thanksgiving Dr. Johnston sent out a special bulletin to all ministers of the city urging them to forget the "marks of imperfection that are all too evident" and "on this day of days to cultivate the habit of the optimist rather than the pessimist." For all this, frequently adminishabit of the optimist rather than the pessimist."

The regulation Thanksgiving sermon, instead of making people glad, sends them home with an attack of the blues guaranteed to last until after the final serving of Turkey hash has been stowed away, the Rev. Johnston declared, in asking the pastors to make their text a cheerful one and then stick to it, even unto the fourthly and fifthly.

LAKE CITY CHIEF OF POLCE SHOT FROM AMBUSH

Lake City, Fla., November 29.— Chief of Police H. A. Revels was probably fatally wounded tonight by parties who fired on him from a parties who fired on him from a clump of bushes as he sat in his automobile before the courthouse. Some 15 shots were directed towards the chief. Three took effect in his left arm, neck and breast.

Three men, who showed activity in an automobile standing nearby at the time of the shooting, are being sought. This trio, a is said, raced across town in their car after the shooting and headed northward. Their identity is unknown. No reason is known for the attempted assassination of the chief.

Urges Preacher HERE'S NEW WAY OF GETTING BETTER

Los Angeles, Cal., Nov. 29.—Prohibition enforcement officers found a little bottle of liquer yesterday bearing a label that said it had been sold by "Tony, and gave an address. They surrounded the place and captured eighteen italians.

They lined up the captives and the chief raider asked: "Now, then, which of you fellows is Tony?"

With one move the eighteen stepped forward and with one voice they answered:

answered:
"Tony, that's me."
The officers gave it up and the eighteen Tonys went free.

Record Number of Home-Raised Turkeys Available for Thanksgiving

BY CRADDOCK GOINS.

Prayer and turkey will hold forth u Georgia communities from the ountains to the ea as Georgia comunities observe the Thanksgiving custom today on perhaps the most elaborate scale since the thirteenth colony first joined the Pilgrim fathers Y. observance of the occasion, ac cording to reports to The Constitu-oll weevil, farmers and business men of the state are sharing the most opeful spirit that has prevailed since before the depression that came at end of the war, these reports would indicate.

In Georgia cities and towns, union prayer services in different churches will be the principal order of the day, to be followed in some of the towns by football games and other athletic contests.

To the advancement of the farm diversification idea, which has led to the raising of more poultry and live stock, is attributed the plentiful supply of turkeys for the serving of the traditional Thanksgiving dishes in Georgia homes. For the last several days farmers of the state have been disposing of turkeys in towns through. days farmers of the state laye been disposing of turkeys in towns through, out the state, and it is estimated that Thanksgiving dinners today will find more home-raised fowls on Georgia tables than ever before, as also more of other varieties of foodstuff.

Rome Ready.

Last Witness in Rim Company Trial Testifies-Argument Begins Triday.

Charges that Elmer Oliver and V Collis, former president and vice president, respectively, of the Oliver Rim company, tampered with the comrecords to make the pany's records to make the assets of a subsidiary concern appear $7,000 larger than they really were so the subsidiary could obtain a loan of $5,000, were made in Fulton superior court Wednesday by Frank I. Doud, the state's last witness in the trial of Elmer Oliver, charged with embezzlement.

After Doud testified Oliver took the stand and denied the charge and both sides announced that they closed the case and both sides announced that they closed the case. Arguments will begin Friday morning. The trial, consuming 18 days, was one of the longest in the history of the county. Doud was salesmanager for the American Die Metal and Stamping company, in which Oliver and Colling made an effort to draw his pistol threatening him by word of mouth simultaneously, was supported by the testimony today of Hadley Huling, his son, and Johnson Owens, Muscoge county police officer.

The court room has been crowded throughout the trial but perfect order has prevailed. Hundreds of spectators and witnesses have been present in the city since the opening of the trial Monday morning but there has not been the slightest semblance of disorder anywhere.

Opinion as to the verdict as with all of the evidence in is divided with none anticipating a verdict of murder. Many express the belief that an acquittal will result, a number probably equally as large expect a verdict of manslaughter, with the opinion freely expressed that a mistrial will be the outcome.
